Like Man,

how far-out can you get!

April 1st

MONSTER FROM A

PREHISTORIC PLANET (Color) 1967

Nosy scientists gather up some exotic animals when they discover what they call a "Gappa!" This baby dinosaur is taken ashore into the city, only to have his angry parents in hot pursuit. #SmashTheMiniatureCity

April 8th

SUPERMAN CARTOONS (Color) 1940

Max Fleischer brought America's favorite super hero to life in a series of MGM cartoons as the beatniks bring the show to you from the FanExpo in Toronto, and Buffalo Comicon.

April 15th

THE MAGIC SWORD (Color) 1962

Devious wizard Lodac (Basil Rathbone) abducts Princess Helene (Anne Helm). Young Sir George (Gary Lockwood) vows to rescue the fair maiden and win her heart in the process. George, who apprentices for a bumbling witch, nabs an enchanted sword from his boss's collection and makes off for Lodac's lair, only to find that the much more experienced Sir Branton (Liam Sullivan) is already on the case.

April 22nd

PSYCH-OUT (COLOR) 1968

Jenny Davis (Susan Strasberg) is a deaf young woman who has run away from home to search for her missing brother. Arriving in the hippie-filled Haight-Ashbury neighborhood of San Francisco, Jenny befriends a rock group with heavy psychedelic leanings, becoming close to band member Stoney (Jack Nicholson). Aided by Dave (Dean Stockwell), who used to be in the ensemble, Stoney and Jenny come closer to tracking down her sibling, and enture into trippy territory while on hallucinogens. #FAROUT

April 29th

NIAGARA FALLS (B&W) 1941

Zasu Pitts and Slim Summerville star in this rarely seen romantic comedy classic from director Hal Roach, set against the backdrop of one of the wonders of the world, Niagara Falls! #SLOWLYTURNED
