

M A Y 2 0 1 9

Movie Schedule

Off
Beat
Cinema™

Check Your Local Listings

Like Man,

how far-out can you get!

May 4th

RASHOMON (B&W) 1950

Considered to be one of the finest movies ever made. This 1950 Japanese classic was directed by Akira Kurosawa, and stars Toshiro Mifune. "Rashomon" is a riveting psychological thriller that investigates the nature of truth, and the meaning of justice. This is a five star cinematic adventure cats!

May 11th

GORG0 (Color) 1961

Bird, Zelda, and Theo deliver the "mother lode" with this Off Beat Cinema classic. Director Eugene Lourie creates a real mood in this tale of monstrous mother love! Watch when a wayward baby sea monster is put on display at a London circus, only to have his mom show up and drag junior home...while smashing a few buildings that get in the way!

May 18th

MISSILE TO THE MOON (B&W) 1953

A spaceship blasts off from Earth with five aboard, but one of them is secretly a Moon man returning home. He dies by accident during the trip. What the remaining four find waiting for them when they arrive on the Moon is well beyond their expectations, with huge rock creatures, giant lunar spiders, and a cave-dwelling civilization made up of beautiful women!

May 25th

ATTACK OF THE KILLER SHREWS (Color) 2016

Bird, Zelda, and Theo welcome Western New York filmmaker Ken Cosentino, with members of his cast and crew, who created a parody remake of this 50's drive-in classic! Hilarity ensues as small town Sheriff Martin Blake, movie starlet Fiona Rae, and others defend the world from an onslaught of giant killer shrews...which really look like dogs who have a thing for shag carpet! It's the perfect holiday weekend treat!

Looking for a certain poster? Visit posterartusa.com Buffalo's only T-shirt & poster gift gallery.