Like Man,

how far-out can you get!

APRIL 6TH

The Day Of The Triffids (Color) 1963

With the upcoming Eclipse April 8th, watch as Zelda, Bird, and Theo screen a British sci-fi classic that is ripped from today's headlines! A meteor shower blinds most people in the world, and at the same time spreads "Triffid" plant spores which quickly turn into monstrous people eaters. How can one man, a little girl, a couple trapped in a lighthouse, and anyone lucky enough to have survived this far go on? Remember to wear ISO approved glasses if the Eclipse is in your skies!

APRIL 13TH

The Werewolf Vs. The Vampire Woman (Color) 1971

Zelda, Bird, the Theo present the legendary Paul Naschy with Gaby Fuchs and Barbara Capell in this horror classic. While vacationing in the French countryside, two friends unwittingly awaken the corpse of a medieval vampiress inside the castle of a werewolf count in a tale of doomed, tragic love.

APRIL 20TH

Marihuana (B&W) 1936

Is it a coincidence that the beatniks are "rolling" out this campy classic on this date? I think not! This propaganda film depicting the "horrors" of cannabis use is rarely seen - unlike the popular "Reefer Madness." A high school girl is led to ruin after befriending a drug dealer who invites her to a party at his beach house.

APRIL 27TH

Hangar 18 (Color) 1980

UFO's are in the news now more than ever! Are they here? Do aliens walk among us? "Hangar 18" is a star packed science fiction action film with Darren McGavin, Robert Vaughn, Gary Collins, James Hampton, and Pamela Bellwood.
