how far-out can you get!

MAY 4TH

Attack of the Giant Leeches (B&W) 1959

In our 30 years, this one is an all time fan favorite! Yvette Vickers stars in this creature feature, produced by Gene Corman. Were leeches exposed to atomic radiation making them monstrous mutations? Same could be said for some of the cast in this classic! Wear your hip waders as the beatniks jump into the swamp.

MAY 11TH

Get Christie Love! (Color) 1974

This Mother's Day weekend crime drama centers on a Mom gone wrong. Why did she choose a life of crime? Will she ever find her son? Policewoman Christie Love, played by Teresa Graves, looks to bust an LA drug ring. This is the TV movie that launched the series.

MAY 18TH

Suddenly (B&W) 1954

Frank Sinatra stars in this film noir classic with Sterling Hayden. A small California town's tranquility is shattered when the train of the President of the United States is scheduled to make a stop there, but a hired assassin and his henchmen take over a home that provides the perfect vantage point from which to assassinate the president. Frank may be a villain, but we will also sample some of his music!

MAY 25TH

The Horror of Party Beach (B&W) 1964

Beatniks Zelda, Bird, and Theo kick off the beach season passing the sunscreen and popcorn this holiday weekend with a beach party musical. ..with an added twist..a toxic monster has been invited, and Doesn't play well in the sand! This one is directed and co-produced by Del Tenney, featuring the music of the "Del-Aires!" Cool cats and chicks everywhere will be doing the "Zombie Stomp!"
